VILLA RASHMI

Introduction

Villa Rashmi is a one-of-a-kind 100-year old heritage villa in Mumbai with over 50 rooms, located on a dead-end road in the heart of the suburb of Malad. It has been carefully restored to its original state as when it was built in 1920, with authentic Victorian antique furniture, high wooden sloping ceilings, spacious and bright rooms, private balconies, large verandahs, courtyard et cetera, but fitted with modern amenities for today's living.

The owner was born in this historical house, which was built by his father for use as a private guest house. During World War II it was requisitioned for army officers and was returned back to the owner in 1985. It now serves as a holiday home for the enjoyment of the owner with his friends and family. On other days certain areas are available for use by guests who value and appreciate heritage properties.

The owner permits selected exclusive shoots in certain areas by production houses who undertake not to cause any damage. Villa Rashmi has hosted over 100 shoots in the last 2 years. The areas permitted for shooting are the exteriors, frontyard and backyard, certain interior rooms on the first level and second level, that have been prepared for shoots, and the verandahs. All shooting areas would be available without or with limited props, as decided by the owner.

A hidden gem!

In the chaos of the Mumbai traffic, the hustling of the Mumbai local trains... right in the middle of all the Malad (E) chaos, time stopped for me as I entered Villa Rashmi! This place is magical, in all its retro glory, its simplicity and its old world charm... a treat to be alive and be experiencing it.

KALKI KOECHLIN

I thank you for allowing us to show your beautiful home as our home in our story for Times Studio.

It is such a wonderful place you have and it speaks of so much character from the earlier years.

The space, especially the stunning balcony on the first floor, is a treat for film makers and the entire structure is so picturesque.

I had such a lovely time acting here and you are such a wonderful host to your guests.

I hope I get a chance to be in another story which is shot in this very beautiful “Villa Rashmi”, named after your mother.

Thanks again and be blessed.

Warm regards
